

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Registration is Now Open for the FAC's Bemis School of Art Winter/Spring Class Schedule

COLORADO SPRINGS (Dec 10, 2015) — The Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center's Bemis School of Art announces open registration for all Winter and Spring classes. Bemis offers classes for every age and skill level including drawing, watercolor, acrylic and oil painting, printmaking, ceramics, sculpture, jewelry making, art history, photography, and so much more. With over 100 classes to choose from, you are bound to find your perfect match!

The FAC has partnered with PPLD's Library 21C to provide a selection of outreach classes at the 21C Library. "We want our classes to be accessible to all of Colorado Springs and hope people on the north end of town find these classes easily accessible and convenient," said Executive Director of Education, Tara Thomas. "We appreciate the support from PPLD and look forward to a continued partnership."

Fine Arts Center

The Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center, established in 1936, is a privately funded, non-profit art museum, professional theatre company and arts education center. Built on the foundation of the prestigious Broadmoor Art Academy, the FAC carries the legacy of Colorado's arts and cultural heritage. One of 16 charter members of the American Association of Museums, the FAC offers the best in the world of visual arts via its permanent collection and travelling exhibitions, as a TCG member theatre company, and arts education with the Bemis School of Art. The FAC building is considered an architectural landmark in the Rocky Mountain region, designed by John Gaw Meem, and is listed on the National Register for Historical Places.
