

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Back by Popular Demand – Too Much Light Makes The Baby Go Blind
– 30 Plays in 60 Minutes!

Colorado Springs (June 20, 2018) – The Fine Arts Center Theatre Company is excited to bring back the popular “late night” ensemble experiment, Too Much Light Makes The Baby Go Blind by Greg Allen, presenting “30 Plays in 60 Minutes.” On stage June 29-July 21, 2018; directed by Scott RC Levy.

Too Much Light Makes The Baby Go Blind is a witty collection of comic, tragic, political, personal, and abstract plays with a selection of brand new plays for a different show every night. Each two-minute play is performed in random order with an interactive audience. An onstage 60-minute timer keeps everyone honest. Ready, set, GO!

“Fine Arts Center’s ‘Too Much Light ...’ is fabulous A+ ... engaging (without being intimidating), high energy (but not amateurish), intellectually intriguing (unless you don’t want it to be) and just plain delightful... It comes across as part “Saturday Night Live,” part high school play, part black box think piece.” –The Gazette

The entire original FAC cast returns presenting 30 all-new plays: Mackenzie Beyer, Mark Cannon, Anna Faye Hunter, Jordan Matthews, Jareth Spirio, and Kelley Wick.

Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center at Colorado College

The story of the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center at Colorado College (FAC) begins with the founding of the Broadmoor Art Academy by Julie and Spencer Penrose in 1919. During the Great Depression, three dedicated philanthropists – Julie Penrose, Alice Bemis Taylor, and Elizabeth Sage Hare – envisioned expanding the Broadmoor Art Academy into an entire arts district under one roof. The FAC changed its name, built a grand building, and opened as the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center in 1936. In August 2016, the FAC announced an historic alliance with Colorado College and on July 1, 2017, became the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center at Colorado College. The FAC is deeply rooted in the legacy of its founders, who possessed bold visions, a deep passion for the arts, and dedication to the Colorado Springs community. The FAC honors this legacy and spirit today by providing innovative, educational, and multidisciplinary arts experiences designed to elevate the individual spirit and inspire community vitality, building on its history as a unique cultural pillar of the Pikes Peak region.
