A Cast of 18 Revolting Children Hits the FAC Mainstage in the Regional Premiere of Roald Dahl’s Matilda The Musical this Holiday Season

Colorado Springs (Nov. 8 2018) — The Fine Arts Center Theatre Company is excited to present the regional premiere of Roald Dahl’s Matilda The Musical, directed by Mêlisa Annis, making her FAC debut, Dec. 6, 2018-Jan. 6, 2019.

The five-time Tony Award-winning Matilda The Musical, inspired by the twisted genius of Roald Dahl, revels in the anarchy of childhood, the power of imagination, and the inspiring story of a girl who dreams of a better life. Full of catchy songs and exciting dance numbers, Matilda will captivate audiences with the story of a courageous little girl who has an extraordinary personality.

“Above all it’s an exhilarating tale of empowerment, as told from the perspective of the most powerless group of all … little children.” –The New York Times

Matilda is a little girl with astonishing wit, intelligence, and psychokinetic powers. She’s unloved by her cruel parents but impresses her schoolteacher, the highly loveable Miss Honey. Over the course of her first term at school, Matilda and Miss Honey have a profound effect on each other’s lives. Matilda’s school life isn’t completely smooth sailing, however – the school’s mean headmistress, Miss Trunchbull, hates children and just loves thinking up new punishments for those who don’t abide by her rules. But Matilda has courage and cleverness in equal amounts, and could be the school pupils’ saving grace!

The 32-member cast is composed almost entirely of Colorado talent and includes three astounding young women who will share the role of Matilda: Kyra Archuleta, Haley Ballard, and Emily Franks. The rest of the children will be played by: Atticus Baker, Kadyn Ballard, Natalie Beaumont, Joseph Brock, Bridget Brown, Courtney Comer, Lena Dill, Weller Dorff, Gabe Levy, Hunter Roren, Nathan Rytting, Brooklyn Starkey, Peter Seuffert, Kensington Van Hook, and Chloe Wilson. The adult cast includes: Amy Brooks, Parker Fowler, Nathan Halvorson (FAC Associate Director of Performing Arts), Tracy Nicole Taylor, Nels Jacobson, Jessye King, Scott RC Levy (FAC Producing Artistic Director), Meggan O’Mahony, Abby Noble, Kevin Pierce, Carmen Shedd, Micah Speirs, Mark Snyder, and Lauren Weinberg.

The creative team introduces guest choreographer Melissa Zaremba, alongside award-winning FAC design team members Christopher L. Sheley (scenic design) and Holly Anne Rawls (lighting design) with costumes by New York-based designer Sydney Gallas. The production features a 10-member live orchestra, under the musical direction of Jay Hahn.

Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center at Colorado College
The story of the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center at Colorado College (FAC) begins with the founding of the Broadmoor Art Academy by Julie and Spencer Penrose in 1919. For nearly 100 years, 30 West Dale Street has been the hub of rich cultural history throughout the region. The Broadmoor Art Academy served as a pillar in the cultural community of the Rocky Mountain West. During the Great Depression, three dedicated philanthropists – Julie Penrose, Alice Bemis Taylor, and Elizabeth Sage Hare – envisioned expanding the Broadmoor Art Academy into an entire arts district under one roof – ultimately evolving into what is known today as the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center at Colorado College. The FAC is deeply rooted in the legacy of its founders, who possessed bold visions, a deep passion for the arts, and dedication to the Colorado Springs community. The FAC honors this legacy and spirit today by providing innovative, educational, and multidisciplinary arts experiences designed to elevate the individual spirit and inspire community vitality, building on its history as a unique cultural pillar of the Pikes Peak region.
