About Día de Muertos

Día de Muertos (Day of the Dead) is a tradition that dates back around 3,000 years in Latin America. Mesoamerican cultures such as the Aztec, Toltec, Quechua, Mapuche, and others hold a cyclical view of the universe in which death is an integral part of life. The dead are still members of the community, kept alive in memory and spirit, and are welcomed back to Earth during el Día de Muertos.

The revival of the observance of Día de Muertos in the United States is part of the Mexican American reclamation of Indigenous identity that began with the Chicano Movement, which spanned from the 1940s to the 1970s. This celebration continues to evolve in different ways in various regions, illustrating the importance of reclaiming cultural heritage and tradition. Within the United States, it has evolved as a mix of Latin American Indigenous practices, Roman Catholic spiritual traditions, and diasporic Hispano/a, and Latinx American cultural expression.

Like many holidays, it is celebrated in different ways by individuals, families, and communities. Ofrendas (offerings) are made to honor those who have passed and often make creative or socially engaged statements.

Community Table Partner - $400

A community table at the Día de Muertos Celebration provides a unique opportunity for local businesses to connect with attendees and share information about their services. The table should be decorated in a way that creates a vibrant and culturally immersive atmosphere while encouraging meaningful interactions between businesses and the community.

Requirements

- Your organization is actively serving the Hispanic community in El Paso County in some capacity.
- Your table will need to have a Día-related activity to engage our community visitors; ideas include a craft activity, handouts, relevant goodies, etc.

In-Kind Sponsor - Value TBD

An In-Kind sponsorship for the Día de Muertos Celebration allows businesses to contribute goods or services that enhance the event experience. By providing items like decorations, activities, giveaways or other resources, your business plays a crucial role in creating a memorable and culturally rich celebration while gaining visibility within the community in a festive, Día de Muertos-themed environment.

All in-kind sponsorship opportunities must be pre-approved by the Fine Arts Center. Please contact us with any questions or ideas you might have.
